1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,2,4,6,7,9,10-13,16,17,18-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(*b**) as being **anticipated* by *Swanson. Swanson discloses a ball dispenser for use to be attached to a golf bag. Note in figure 5 the tubular container 16 and the adjustable biasing spring and piston 132 so that the balls may be dispensed at an upper position. Note the ball interface device 66 which permits a ball to be dispensed upon actuation of the device 36 which is spring biased to a closed position or a lowered position of the interface device 66 so that balls would not escape the dispenser..

3. **.The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 5,8 are*** rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over *Swanson in view of Threadgill, Jr. To provide Swanson's device for a removable cap for refilling purposed would be obvious in view of the teachings of Threadgill, Jr.'s removable cap 50 so that balls to be refilled in the tube dispenser.

5. Claims 3,14,15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
